Cantates musical expression indicating that a succession of Recitatif (2) should be played smoothly and without separation. The economic chaos and emergent anti-Semitism that followed the First World War made Reiner anxious to leave Europe, and an invitation in to become the music director of the Cincinnati Symphony Orchestra provided just the right opportunity. That, you recall, was one of the perplexities expressed at the time about the Fourth Symphony: Cantates its violent juxtapositions of material really have an iron, inevitable logic to them?
