He is generous and intelligent, but he relishes a fight. Threading his version of history with biblical, historical and personal chapters, each a snapshot of humanity creating its own story, this utterly engaging work of fiction undermines every conceit we might have as to the truth of history as told to us. UncertainDeath-AnthonyGilbert1. Basically I thought this book was great, but I should mention a slight wobble I had with it. Bigler on her achievement. I will have a post up for Paris in July sometime .
