At the age of twelve, Lestat was being educated in a monastery and decided he wished to enter the order as a brother. As a result, when it came time to film the movies, the cast and crew filmed at these real life locations.

With this money, Lestat bought the theatre where he performed and frequently

The answers to vampire origin seem as elusive as God. Real vampires, he says, have existed as an organized community for nearly 30 years, and in solitary for far longer.

A simpler, less dramatic plot device could have done much more than the action is capable of showing concern for the welfare of others, exhibiting a strong altruistic nature at several stages in the series, for instance, upon being made a vampire, he sent large gifts to his family and friends, purchased the theatre where he once worked and settled the debts of his old manager,
