In the early medieval period most new universities were founded from pre-existing schools, usually when these schools were deemed to have become primarily sites of higher education. Durkheim called this state of "excessive individualism" egoism, and the special type of self-inflicted death it produces egoistic suicide.

And since the constraints thus applied are borne unequally by society's men

This means that they are born with a built-in urge to do bad things and to disobey God. Who knows the consequences of another botched job?

Fall goes with redemption. For Christians, the fall is inseparable from redemption.
