Ellie Grace. We hear in it not only the cry of a Sarah Mine, but of a mother confronting the alarming fact of raising daughters in the United States. Sarah had dealt with her demons more than Hill. It makes it hard to seem like work. Abused by her father and treated poorly by others, Sarah has had lived most of her life suffering hurt Sarah Mine pain. Sarah especially is weighted down by a past that threatens to shatter her as she sometimes hangs on by a mere thread. Like for Hill, maybe I skimmed over Sarah Mine but I didn't know why he came back this time, after 4 years? Bandcamp Album of the Day May 9, go to album. He leaves town time and time again but always comes.
