Per intelligentiam, nec in illis, nec de illis. In these numerous poems there is recognisable in the first place a distinct family likeness which is common to the earliest and latest, and in the second, the natural difference of manners which the lapse of three hundred years might be expected to occasion. ErnstMax. Quid est grammatica? Etabli par F. GerdHatje, Stuttgart, Le 2e vol. In actual age it may possibly yield to others, but the connection between the language of the oldest and the language of the newest French literature is far closer than in these other cases, and the fecundity of mediaeval writers in France far exceeds that of their rivals .
