Chris Yates. More Details Although a well known fisherman and writer on the subject, once a year in summer he gets the urge to walk out under the stars and keep moving throughout the night.

This book is a record of a single walk but also a reflection on his childhood with nature. Even today, if anyone disobeys the sacred laws of nature, the power of his fury makes the mountainside tremble. Pages are intact and not marred by notes or highlighting. Two floats – one mouse-eaten!
