Yet large quantities of ancient cloth survive only from the dry Andean coast. She's level-headed and smart, knowing that there are those on the battlefield who do not want her there and working to combat it by making herself an essential source of information.

It was my first experience of speaking in English to an audience of two hundred. Everyone loved it and it made me feel like a princess on my wedding day. Both characters are quite strong in their own right, and play their roles and personal goals. This novel is a beautifully written page-turner with an exciting storyline and lots of surprises.
