At their extremes, meditative and exalted states reflect as psychological and physiological paradox. He does not dismiss them as adults so often do when they have outgrown a particular situation.

On reading Bertram's letters she is, like Imogen when she reads Posthumus's, full of Lawrence. The Rainbow London, p. In this respect, Lettie is strongly influenced by her mother, who regards life in terms of what is allowed and what is forbidden. After that, they put on the shirts and stitched their sleeves together, passing the needle to each other. Let us accept our destiny. My son was also one of their subjects, and is miserable and lost. The rapture induced simply by the melding of the two hearts into one, like an explosion!
