That is we have not succeeded in getting enough votes, but there has been a very marked increase, I think, in the realization of the seriousness of the war. Kerry: Well, Senator, this obviously is the most difficult question of all, but I think that at this point the United States is not really in a position to consider the happiness of those people as pertains to the army in our withdrawal. I think that this Congress should undertake to investigate the sources because I heard many implications of Madam Ky and others being involved in the traffic and I think there are some very serious things here at stake. But it was a device Ciminone needed for his story. I believe they deserve to be heard and listened to by the Congress and by the officials in the executive branch and by the public generally. This is not easy to do, but it is fundamental in a democracy. Anyway, if a G. Note Originally broadcast on WE in Anyway, if a G.
